Dear Friend of St. Charles Borromeo Seminary,

Welcome to the 2016 Seminary Golf Classic! We hope you enjoy this day of leisure at the historically charming Philadelphia Country Club. This year’s classic will include golf on a course with unique ambiance, dinner with a scenic view, and an incredible auction for your enjoyment.

The Seminary is a special place, not only for our seminarians and students, but for all of us. It is here at Overbrook that our future leaders are formed for the priesthood, for the permanent diaconate, and for many forms of pastoral and apostolic service. Today, you will have the pleasure of spending time with several Saint Charles Borromeo seminarians who will be present as hosts, golfers, and special guests. We are confident that you will enjoy meeting these exceptional young men, each of whom is preparing for a life of servant leadership after the heart of Jesus Christ — each hopes through his life of service to spread the joy of the Gospel among the faithful and the communities he is called to serve.

We are very pleased to announce that this year’s classic is held in honor of Mrs. Peggie O’Neill, a native Philadelphia who began Prayer Power ~ a national movement focused on Eucharistic Adoration and vocations ~ over 30 years ago. Mrs. O’Neill’s legacy of prayer and service continues to be the source of immeasurable blessing upon the Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary community.

Proceeds from the Seminary Golf Classic will go directly to support the formation of our seminarians. We are abundantly grateful for your generosity in support of our mission. Today’s seminarians will become our spiritual leaders for the next and future generations. As Mrs. O’Neill would say, “We need to embrace the Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, find God’s love in our hearts, spread it wherever we are, whatever we do, one moment, one heart at a time.”

Thank you for your love for the Church and the Priesthood of Jesus Christ.

Gratefully,

Most Reverend Timothy C. Senior, Rector

Chair, Seminary Golf Classic Committee
St. Charles Borromeo Seminary’s fundamental mission is the formation of Catholic priests for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and other dioceses and religious communities throughout the world for pastoral service in the priesthood of Jesus Christ. Saint Charles also serves the community by forming men as permanent deacons through the Diaconate program, and provides academic and pastoral programs for religious and laity through the School of Theological Studies.

In Pastores Dabo Vobis, Pope John Paul II identified the principal foundations for priestly formation as human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral. These four pillars form the comprehensive structure of formation at St. Charles that guides the development of men toward priesthood. The goal is an atmosphere that fosters a thorough process of formation so that those called by God have a strong priestly identity, a desire to serve, and a love for God’s people.

Peggie O’Neill was a Philadelphia native and a well-respected corporate leader. She was the founder of Loyalty Management University and created communication training programs for large corporations. But amongst her most treasured accomplishments were marrying her husband, Frank O’Neill, raising six sons, and assuming the role of grandmother for sixteen grandchildren. Peg considered these her greatest gifts.

Peggy O’Neill was also a devoted supporter of St. Charles Borromeo Seminary. She knew the importance of forming priests for the future and was committed to growing their mission. St. Charles Seminary is honored to recognize her at this year’s Golf Outing, and remembers her compassion for others fondly.

“WE NEED TO EMBRACE THE EUCHARISTIC HEART OF JESUS, FIND GOD’S LOVE IN OUR HEARTS, SPREAD IT WHEREVER WE ARE, WHATEVER WE DO, ONE MOMENT, ONE HEART AT A TIME.” - PEGGIE O’NEILL
