For the 2020 John Cardinal Foley Lecture, we were gracious to have Fr. Mike Schmitz speak in our St. Martin's Chapel at the seminary. You may know Fr. Mike Schmitz from his tremendous videos by way of Ascension.

Fr. Mike spoke on the Church and Social Communications! Speaking to hundreds of faithful, he talked about his role as an evangelist in the new media and about the gift of his Priesthood.

Where do we begin in the work of the new evangelization?... See More

Ascension

John Cardinal Foley Chair of Social Communications

Fr. Mike speaks about evangelization, new media, and telling the story of God's love at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia. Addressing future pastors, he tells them "the heart of your formation is to become a dad" to your parishioners. He encourages them to use the same motto they use at the Newman Center of the University of Minnesota, Duluth, where he serves as campus minister. The motto he shares with students there is "See a need, fill a need."

In other words, you don't have to wait for permission to share the gospel, to be charitable, or to do good.

We're called to 'tell the story about Jesus,' evangelizer says

At a Jan. 27 lecture, popular Catholic speaker Father Mike Schmitz said spreading the Gospel is the task of all the baptized – with social media as a starting point for a real-life community of faith.
