Inside Catholic Philly.com: The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

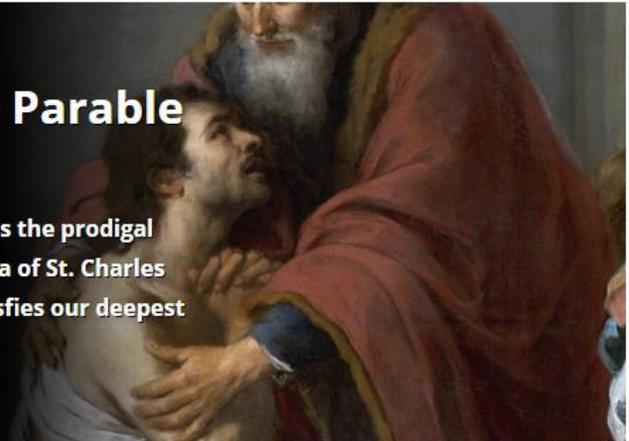

When he cursed a barren fig tree, Christ reminded us that our time is short, and that we miss out on true growth by choosing to stagnate in sin. Seminarian Steven DiMassimo from St. Charles Borromeo Seminary shares how we can move from frustration to freedom and fruitfulness.

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: A Woman Caught in Adultery

Like the woman caught in adultery, we stand before God utterly vulnerable in our sinfulness. Seminarian Mark Tobin of St. Charles Borromeo Seminary shares how Christ restores us through his merciful love, and frees us to share that same compassion with others.

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday puts Christians in the heart of the action, as Jesus enters Jerusalem to redeem us through his death and resurrection. Seminarian John Paul Heisler of St. Charles Borromeo Seminary shares how our annual remembrance of Christ's passion is new and lifegiving over two thousand years later.
