Initiative on Catholic Social Thought and Public Life

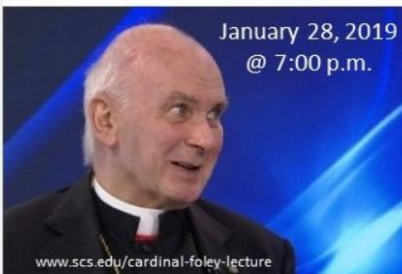

Kim Daniels is the associate director of the Initiative on Catholic Social Thought and Public Life, bringing her broad experience, skills, relationships, and academic background to Georgetown. She is a key contributor to all Initiative programs and leads the Initiative's Salt and Light and Latino Leadership efforts. Kim partnered with the Initiative to help lead the Convening on Overcoming Polarization in June 2018. A graduate of Princeton University and the University of Chicago Law School, Kim was appointed by Pope Francis as a Member of the Vatican Dicastery for Communication in 2016, and has been a lead advisor to the U.S. bishops and Catholic organizations on issues where Church teachings intersect with public life, including immigration, human life and dignity, religious liberty, and care for creation. She and her husband have six children.

As he guided media thru the crisis' start, His Foleyness always urged that – brutal as it is – "You have to tell the truth."

Last night, in the lecture that bears his name, the 1st US woman with a lead role in Vatican comms – @KDaniels8 – did just that:
