

PODCASTS ... with Gina Christian & Matt Gambino

featuring

REV. THOMAS DAILEY, O.S.F.S.

The John Cardinal Foley Chair of Homiletics & Social Communications

@ Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary

2019

scroll to the image links below to listen via the web site

January 10, 2019

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: Church militant or a gentle people of God?

Many Christians are engaged in a spiritual battle with the wrong enemy. Father Thomas Dailey, O.S.F.S. shares how St. Francis de Sales focused on gentleness as a sign of God's presence in the soul.

January 16, 2019

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: Homilies and what to do about them

Do you find yourself flipping through the bulletin or dozing off during the homily? Father Thomas Dailey shares the real purpose of the homily and what makes for effective preaching.

February 8, 2019

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: From social webs to real communities

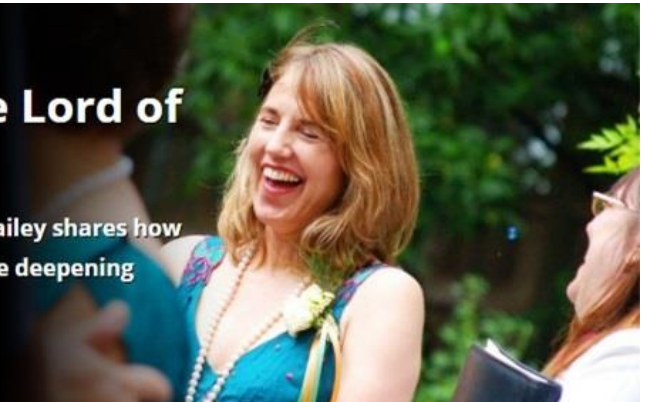

The internet can both connect us to others and ensnare us in self-isolation. Father Thomas Dailey, O.S.F.S. shares his thoughts on how we can build authentic networks in cyberspace and, above all, in person.

February 21, 2019

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: The Lord of laughter

Does God have a sense of humor? Oblate Father Thomas Dailey shares how laughter helps to spread the good news of the Gospel, while deepening relationships and making life's journey easier.

March 11, 2019

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: Fasting and why it's good for you

Denying ourselves is difficult, especially in a culture of all-you-can-eat buffets. Oblate Father Thomas Dailey shares how fasting works (hint: it's not about "gaming the Lenten system"), and what fruits this discipline can bring to our lives.

March 26, 2019

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: Home runs and holiness

What do God and grand slams have in common? Quite a lot, according to Oblate Father (and avid baseball fan) Thomas Dailey, who shares how the divine can be found on the baseball diamond.

April 24, 2019

Inside CatholicPhilly.com: Youth and Liturgy

How can the Catholic faith, and the Mass in particular, engage today's youth? Oblate Father Thomas Dailey shares how even in a digitally distracted age, teens and young adults encounter God in the liturgy.

May 17, 2019

Moving from 'like' to 'amen,' online and in person

Does Mass on television "count," and are your Facebook friends really your friends? In this episode of Inside CatholicPhilly.com, Father Thomas Dailey shares how the church can transform social networks into human communities.

June 6, 2019

Dare to discern what God wants you to do

Figuring out your vocation can be difficult, especially in the noisy digital age, but it's not a task we should fear, says Oblate Father Thomas Dailey. A sense of peace confirms when you're on the right path, and the Lord's love will reroute you even if you miss the exit.

July 12, 2019

How to journey with youth who have drifted from the faith

Young people aren't storming out of the Catholic Church; they're simply walking away. In this episode of Inside CatholicPhilly.com, Oblate Father Thomas Dailey shares how can an ancient faith speak to a new generation by evangelizing in fresh, relevant ways.

July 26, 2019

How to drink like a saint

Do spirits and spirituality mix? Yes, according to Oblate Father Thomas Dailey, who shares how we can lift both glasses and hearts with friends, and honor God by taking delight in his countless blessings.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★