

SAINT CHARLES BORROMEO SEMINARY
100 EAST WYNNEWOOD ROAD, WYNNEWOOD, PA, 19096

Tuition and Fees
Academic Year 2013-2014

Through the generosity of the people of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, the Seminary tuition and fees have been kept to a minimum so that no man sincerely interested in the priesthood will be deterred because of financial inability.

Annually the Board of Trustees of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary reviews the costs related to the formation program and evaluates the fees for tuition, room and board, and services provided. The Board of Trustees will approve adjustments to our fee structure at their May 2013 meeting. At this time, the Board has agreed that an increase, if any, will not exceed 2% for the 2013-2014 academic year. The expected fees for 2013-2014 are:

Division	College Division	Pre-Theology	Theology
Tuition	$18,300	$18,300	$20,200
Room	$ 4,100	$ 4,100	$ 4,100
Board	$ 8,200	$ 8,200	$ 8,200
Comprehensive Fee	$ 1,200	$ 1,200	$ 1,200
Total:	$31,210	$31,210	$33,105

It is the obligation of each seminarian to provide his own books and supplies. Seminarians may join the Student Health Insurance Plan at the time the group permits. Membership in this or some similar hospitalization plan is recommended. Expenses of hospital confinement or treatments at a hospital must be met by the seminarian or his family.

Seminarians are encouraged to apply for financial aid through the Financial Aid Office (see Financial Aid attached).

An invoice for charges will be sent by the Financial Services Office to the Vocation Director of the sponsoring (arch)diocese or religious order at the beginning of each semester. Payment is due upon receipt of the statement.

Tuition payments can be mailed or paid in person at the Financial Services Office. The Seminary accepts MasterCard/Visa/Discover, cash, or checks. Payments should be payable to Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary and mailed to:

Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary
Attention: Financial Services
100 East Wynnewood Road
Wynnewood, PA 19096

Any questions regarding tuition payments can be directed to Mary D. D'Urso, Director of Financial Services at 610-785-6201.

April 4, 2013

Dear Vocation Director:

In a recent announcement, Archbishop Charles Chaput communicated his promise to strengthen Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary for many generations to come. "Our commitment to providing the best possible program of priestly formation for the benefit of our seminarians and the people they will one day serve is unwavering," Archbishop Chaput said.

Saint Charles Seminary continually strives to make improvements. The Student Dining Room was freshly painted and new carpeting was installed. The Theology Division seminarians received new lounge furniture for their gatherings in the television room.

This summer, Saint Charles Seminary will begin plans for major renovations of the upper campus. The plans will take from three to five years to implement completely and the campus will see myriad improvements.

Annually the Board of Trustees of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary reviews the costs related to the formation program and evaluates the fees for tuition, room and board, and services provided. The Board of Trustees will approve adjustments to our fee structure at their meeting May meeting. At this time, the Board has agreed that an increase, if any, will not exceed 2% for the 2013-2014 academic year. Mindful of the increasing financial demands on all dioceses, religious communities, and seminarians, the Seminary's costs have been kept to a minimum so that no man sincerely interested in pursuing a priestly vocation will be deterred. The expected fees for 2013-2014 are:

	College Division	Pre-Theology	Theology Division
Tuition	$18,300	$18,300	$20,200
Room	$ 4,100	$ 4,100	$ 4,100
Board	$ 8,200	$ 8,200	$ 8,200
Comprehensive Fee	$ 1,200	$ 1,200	$ 1,200
Total:	$31,800	$31,800	$33,700

It is the responsibility of the sending diocese or religious community to make payment for its seminarian(s) each semester when billing is received from the Seminary. Please note that this is not a bill. Also, please know that the Seminary's Financial Aid Office is available to assist seminarians in obtaining financial assistance to help meet expenses. More information regarding financial aid can be obtained by contacting my office or the Financial Aid Office at (610) 785-6582.

You are invited to contact my office if the Seminary's fee structure will present a financial difficulty for your particular diocese or religious community. A letter will be sent to you in late May notifying you of the approved fee structure. Thank you for your continued support of Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary.

Sincerely,

Elaine K. Rice
Vice President for Finance and Operations