

PTH 602 - Contemporary Homiletics Spring 2021

Seminarian Podcasts for Lent

(click on the photos to go to the audio)

Listen to CatholicPhilly.com

Christ is our hope in hard times, hard places

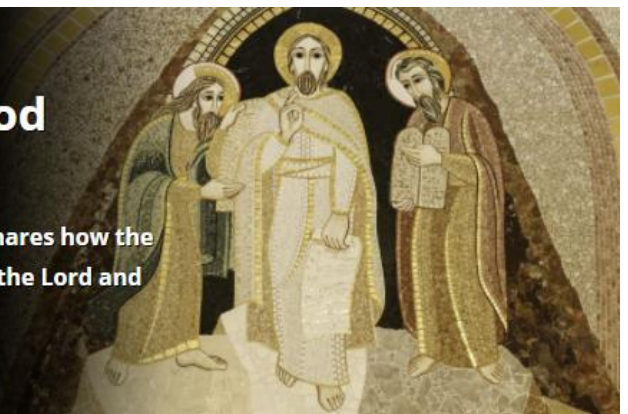

Anthony Albanese, a seminarian at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Wynnewood, shares with Inside CatholicPhilly.com how Jesus is with us in our struggles, and how the kingdom of God is already here -- and still to come.

Listen to CatholicPhilly.com

Stunned into silence, where God whispers love

Phong Le, a seminarian at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, shares how the Transfiguration invites us to be still, and to create space for the Lord and others.

Listen to CatholicPhilly.com

An angry Jesus shows the way to peace

Ricardo Martinez, a seminarian at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary shares with Inside CatholicPhilly.com how Christ modeled a holy havoc that cleansed the Temple, while pointing the way to righteousness and eternal life.

Listen to CatholicPhilly.com

When love is lifted up, life flows

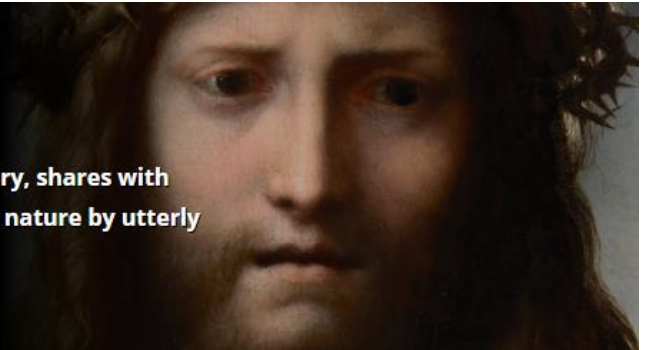

Shane Flanagan, a seminarian at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, shares with Inside CatholicPhilly.com how Christ's selfless death reveals the true meaning of a word we take for granted.

Listen to CatholicPhilly.com

Dying to live forever

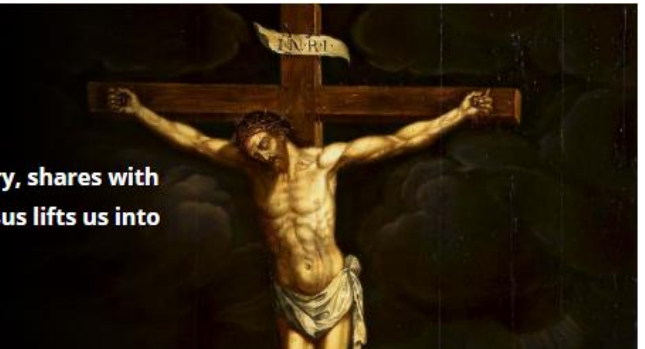

John Okpara, a seminarian at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, shares with Inside CatholicPhilly.com how Jesus' cross redeems human nature by utterly defying it – and making it eternal.

Lent 2021

Finding joy through suffering

Randy Kraft, a seminarian at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary, shares with Inside CatholicPhilly.com how embracing the cross with Jesus lifts us into eternal life.

* * * * *