SYNODALITY...

a style, a mentality, a spirituality, a pastoral model

Instrumentum Laboris, #59 – Formation is the indispensable means to make the synodal way of proceeding a pastoral model for the Church's life and action. ... In particular, then, the more one is called to serve the Church, the more one must feel the urgency of formation: Bishops, Priests, Deacons, Consecrated men and women, and all those who exercise a ministry need formation to renew the ways of exercising authority and decision-making processes in a synodal key, and to learn how to accompany community discernment and conversation in the Spirit. Candidates for ordained Ministry must be trained in a synodal style and mentality. The promotion of a culture of synodality implies the renewal of the current seminary curriculum and the formation of teachers and professors of theology, so that there is a clearer and more decisive orientation towards formation for a life of communion, mission and participation. Formation for a more genuinely synodal spirituality is at the heart of the renewal of the Church.”

Join us to discuss the theme of the upcoming Synod of Bishops in October.
