Communicating Christ's Presence in a Digital World

featuring SR. NANCY USSELMANN, F.S.P.

CENTER FOR MEDIA STUDIES

Sister Nancy is the Director of the Pauline Center for Media Studies in Los Angeles. A frequent guest at Hollywood's red-carpet events and film panels, she is a recognized specialist in media literacy education. Her presentations and publications reflect her continuing research into media mindfulness catechesis – where faith formation and popular media consumption intersect. She serves as an executive board member of Catholics in Media Associates and The Christophers, and as a judge of the Gabriel Awards given by the Catholic Media Association.
