WOMEN'S BEGINNER GOLF CLINIC

The 2025 St. Charles Seminary Classic presents a Women's Beginner Golf Clinic on Monday, September 29, 2025, at Philadelphia Country Club in Gladwyne, PA. The goal of creating this clinic is to provide another way for guests to get involved in the event and help raise money for the Seminary while providing another unique niche opportunity for sponsors.

For the past 11 years, St. Charles Seminary Classic has supported the seminarians, permanent deacons, religious and lay leaders at Saint Charles Borromeo Seminary by providing essential funding for their formation and education. Proceeds from the event will help ensure these future leaders of the Church receive the human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral training needed to serve with dedication and excellence while empowering them to serve their communities with humility, joy, faith, and compassion.

LOGISTICS

The women's golf clinic will be managed by Philadelphia Country Club's Professional golf staff. There will be one teaching pro for every 4-5 participating players. For those women who do not bring their own clubs, we will provide 2-3 clubs per person to use for the clinic. The focus will be on rules, etiquette, swing fundamentals, and short game. Each participant will also receive a small gift for attending, and prizes will be awarded for several contests throughout the afternoon.
